

Sinclair
Broadcasting's
decision to force
their stations to air an anti-Kerry
documentary so soon
before the election
is a clear example
of the dangers of media consolidation.

Sinclair uses the public airwaves free of charge, and is obligated by law to serve the public interest. As a member of the public, and a rightful owner of those airwaves I think this a clear
violation of law.
When large companies
control the airwaves, we get more of what's good for the bottom line
and less of what we need for our democracy. Instead of something
produced at "News Central" far away,
it's more important
that we see real people from our own communities and more
substantive news
about issues that matter.

I am particularly concerned with Sinclair's intention to air a One-sided program like "Stolen Honor". I think this is harmful to our democracy. Please try to prevent this from happening.

Sinclair's actions
show why we need to strengthen media
ownership rules, not weaken them. They show why the license
renewal process
needs to involve
more than a returned postcard. Thank you.
